Dear Leaders:

Welcome to Fort Jackson, home of the Adjutant General's Corps. I personally look forward to your attendance. Our mission is to educate, train, and develop Army Adjutant General Officers and Warrant Officers to be agile, adaptive, confident, and competent Human Resource leaders utilizing relevant doctrinal instruction in order to operate in today's operational environment. Our courses are designed to prepare you to assume your role as an officer, leader, and human resources manager. Courses are a rewarding experience and serves as a solid foundation upon which to build your career.

The school will challenge you academically, physically, and mentally. My expectation is that you, as a leader, come here motivated to learn, and imbued with the Army Values and warrior spirit.

I wish you safe travels and look forward to your arrival here at Fort Jackson.

DEFEND AND SERVE!

Sincerely,
