

Colonel Neal McIntyre was commissioned a Field Artillery Second Lieutenant through the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Bowling Green State University, as a distinguished military graduate in May 1989. Colonel McIntyre's first duty assignment sent him to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he served with Delta Battery, 3rd Battalion, 321st Field Artillery, Field Artillery Training Center as Executive Officer and later with Alpha Battery, 2nd Battalion, 18th Field Artillery, III Corps Artillery as a Fire Direction Officer and Firing Battery Platoon Leader. For his next assignment he served with the United States Army Recruiting Battalion, Kansas City, Kansas, as the Operations Officer. After leaving USAREC, Colonel McIntyre was assigned to Fort Hood, Texas, where he served with 1st Squadron, 10th Cavalry Regiment, 4th Infantry Division as the Squadron Fire Support Officer and later with Alpha Battery, 4th Battalion, 42nd Field Artillery, 4th Infantry Division as Battery Commander. Fort Stewart, Georgia was his next destination where he served as Group S1 for the 24th Corps Support Group, 1st Corps Support Command. After CGSC, Colonel McIntyre served in Baghdad, Iraq, and Wiesbaden, Germany, with 1st Armored Division as Deputy G-1 and Secretary of the General Staff. Colonel McIntyre's next assignment was to Alexandria, Virginia, where he served as Chief of Requirements Branch, Human Resources Command (HRC). He was next assigned to Fort Benning, Georgia where he served as Commander, 30th Adjutant General Battalion (Reception), 192nd Infantry Brigade. Upon completion of command, Colonel McIntyre returned to HRC to serve as the AG Branch Chief and Executive Officer, Force Sustainment Division in the Officer Personnel Management Directorate. Colonel McIntyre was later assigned to Headquarters Department of the Army as Executive Officer to the Director of the Army Staff, immediately followed by service as Commander, Eastern Sector, United States Military Entrance Processing Command. Colonel McIntyre's most recent assignment was as Chief of Staff to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs, Office of the Secretary of Defense.

His professional military education includes: Field Artillery Officer Basic and Advance Courses; the Combined Arms Services and Staff School; the Human Resources Management Course; the United States Army Command and General Staff College; and the Eisenhower School, National Defense University. His civilian education includes a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Communications; Master of Science degree in Human Resources Management from Central Michigan University; and Master of Science degree in National Security and Resource Strategy from National Defense University.

Colonel McIntyre's military awards and decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Army Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, and unit citations.

Colonel McIntyre is married with one daughter.