

Colonel (Ret.) Michael R. Molosso

Deputy Commandant/Supervisory Training Advisor

US Army Adjutant General School

Colonel (R) Michael R. Molosso was born June 7, 1953 in Hammonton, NJ, and graduated from Valley Forge Military Academy, Wayne, PA in May 1971. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Government from Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ in May 1975.

Colonel (R) Molosso was commissioned in the Regular Army in June 1975 through the Army ROTC program at Seton Hall University. In January 1976, he was assigned to Germany where he served as a Forward Observer for the 2nd Battalion, 6th Field Artillery Regiment, Geinhausen, and later as an Administrative Officer in the Frankfurt Military Community. In 1979, he served as Adjutant and later Operations Officer of the Armed Forces Examining and Entrance Station, Raleigh, NC. After completing the Adjutant General Advanced Course in June 1982, he was assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, NC, as the 82nd Adjutant General Company Commander and later as the Chief of Personnel Management Branch in the Office of the 82nd Adjutant General. During that period he participated in Operation Urgent Fury (Grenada). In February 1985, he was reassigned to Fort McPherson, GA, where he served as an Action Officer and Team Chief on the DCSPER's Army of Excellence Task Force.

After completing the Command and General Staff College in June 1988, Colonel (R) Molosso was assigned to Camp Casey, Korea, where he served with the 8th Personnel Command and the 2nd Infantry Division as the Commander, 509th Personnel Service Company. He returned to Fort Bragg in July 1989 as the Deputy Adjutant General and later as the Division G1/Adjutant General. During that period he supported Operation Just Cause and participated in Operations Desert Shield/Desert Storm. He commanded the Baltimore Military Entrance Processing Station from July 1992 to July 1994. He entered United States Army War College, Carlisle Barracks, PA, in July 1994 and upon graduation in June 1995, was assigned to the Army Staff in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, Washington, D.C., where he served as a Branch Chief in Officer Division and then as the Officer Division Chief. From August 1998 to August 2000, he served as Commander, Eastern Sector, USMEPCOM in North Chicago, IL. Colonel (R) Molosso culminated his career at the US Army Soldier Support Institute, Ft Jackson, SC as the Commandant, US Army Adjutant General School, Chief, Adjutant General Corps and Chief, Army Bands from August 2000 to December 2002. He retired from active duty on 1 February 2003 and became a Financial Planner in Columbia, SC. He returned to Federal Service in his current civilian position on 2 May 2005.

Colonel (R) Molosso's awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit w/OLC, Bronze Star Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal w/OLC, Meritorious Service Medal, with three oak leaf clusters, Army Commendation Medal w/OLC, 2 National Defense Service Medals, the Korean Service Medal, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, the Southwest Asia Service Medal with two Bronze Service Stars, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal the Saudi Arabian Kuwait Liberation Medal, the Kuwait Liberation Medal, the Overseas Ribbon, the Army Service Ribbon, the Senior Parachutist's Badge and the Army Staff Identification Badge.