

US Army Adjutant General's Corps Museum

The Museum is dedicated to the history of the Army's Adjutant General's Corps from 1775 to present. Historical documents, photos, uniforms and equipment depict the diverse history of the Corps. Today's AG Corps serves as human resource manager for the Army. They function as the supervisor and coordinator of a unit's personnel and administration systems. Additionally, the AG Corps is the proponent for the Army bands, postal operations, and morale, welfare and recreation activities. Open to the general public on Tuesday through Friday, from 12 am - 4 pm. The Museum facility is located on the corner of Strom Thurmond Blvd. and Magruder Ave. in Bldg. 4392. Admission to the Museum is FREE and it is handicap accessible. Group tours are available by appointment. For more information call (803) 751-1747.
