

Brigade S-1 Course (7C-F47/500-F34)

This course is intended for all components and an excellent opportunity to receive current, relevant training focused specifically on current or future responsibilities. The Brigade S-1 Operations Course provides in-depth, multi-component, HR technical education necessary to support warfighting commanders and the Army Force Generation (ARFORGEN) process. It is individually designed to help prepare Adjutant General's Corps officers, warrant officers and noncommissioned officers to interpret, integrate, coordinate, and implement Army HR programs and policies at the Brigade level.

The Brigade S-1 Operations Course is open to: 1) All Branch/AOC 42 Officers in the grade of CPT and MAJ who have successfully completed a Captain's Career Course (CCC); 2) All 420A Warrant Officers who have successfully completed the AG Warrant Officer Basic Course (WOBC); 3) All 42A Noncommissioned Officers in the grade of SSG (P), SFC, and MSG who have successfully completed the AG Senior Leader Course (SLC), serving in, or projected to serve in Brigade S-1 positions at the OIC, NCOIC, and Technician level. This course is open to DA Civilians GS 11-13 serving in, or projected to serve in, a valid Human Resources Management position on a space-available basis.
