Subj: BILLETING AND TRANSPORTATION

1. Entry level Marine students reporting from Marine Combat Training will report to Bravo Company, 369th AG BN; Bachelor Enlisted Quarters, building 2301, Sumter Avenue.
2. Entry level Marine students arriving from Marine Combat Training will not be authorized to operate or ride in any privately owned vehicles while assigned to the Inter-service Postal Training Activity. The local taxi services are authorized for use at the student's expense.
3. Marine students on temporary additional duty (TAD) will report to the IHG Army Hotel, building 7550, Benning Road to check into billeting. Since there is no barracks available for Marine students on TAD orders, a Statement of Non-Availability must be requested from the Postal School prior to arriving. All students on TAD orders are individually responsible to establish their own lodging and transportation arrangements. The phone number to Army lodging is 1 (803) 782-9802.
4. For more information please call (803) 751-3215 or (803) 751-3536.

Subj: COURSE INFORMATION

Ref: (a) Policy Letter 8-12 Academic Framework

1. The Inter-service Postal Training Activity hours are:

Monday-Friday 0830-1700

2. Students who request extra assistance on any course material must notify their instructors in advance so that schedule changes can be made accordingly.

3. Multiple test failures, lack of motivation, etc. may be cause for elimination from the course. All cases for elimination will be determined by the Inter-service Postal School Director.

4. Only enlisted students may compete for class honors in the Postal Operations Course. The Supervisor's Course does not have honors recognition. Any negative counseling or test failures will be an automatic disqualifier for class honors. The top 20% of the class will be recognized as follows:

Distinguished Honor Graduate - Highest overall grade point average.
Honor Graduate - Second highest grade point average.
Adjutant General Commandant's List - Next highest grade point average.

5. Appointments and make up training will be brought to the Instructor's attention. Appointments ought to be kept to a minimum; however should this situation arise instructors will make arrangements with the student for make-up training.

6. For more information please call (803) 751-3215 or (803) 751-3536.
