

Mr. Mark W. Hickman

DEPUTY COMMANDANT ADJUTANT GENERAL SCHOOL

Mr. Mark Hickman has served as the Deputy Commandant of the Adjutant General School (AGS) from June 2024 to present. He is a retired AG warrant officer with over 32 years' experience in Army Human Resources (HR) Management. Prior to his current position, Mr. Hickman served as the 8th Chief Warrant Officer of the AG Corps, and held numerous positions in the AG School and in the operational Army throughout his career.

Mr. Hickman earned his Senior Professional in HR Certification, and holds Bachelors and Masters degrees in Human Resources from Trident International University and Webster University, respectively. He is a graduate of all levels of Army warrant officer professional military education. Mr. Hickman retired from the Army in 2023. His military assignments included Training Developer, Instructor, Proponent and Chief Warrant Officer of the AG Corps at the AG School, Training with Industry, I Corps at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, 1st Infantry Division, 1st Armored Division, and 38th Personnel Services Battalion in Germany, units at Fort George G. Meade, MD, Fort Richardson, AK, and Fort Carson, CO, as well as service with the Montana Army National Guard.

Mr. Hickman is a lifetime member of the Adjutant General Corps Regimental Association, and was inducted as a Distinguished Member of the Corps in 2023. He is a recipient of the Horatio Gates Gold Medal, Horatio Gates Bronze Medal (x2), and the Achievement Medal (x2)

Mr. Hickman is married and the proud "bonus dad" of two children.